EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ms. Saltiel on 9/12/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 3, line 5, after "time" insert -- for disassembling operation of each component --.

Claim 4, line 6, after "time" insert -- for disassembling operation of each component --.

Remarks: in regards to applicant's comments about the previously submitted IDS, on page 4 in the response of 6/29/05, the portions which were crossed out by the examiner were under the column heading document number and the portions which are not part of the document number were crossed out. The listed document was considered by the examiner. Also applicant mentions that a copy of the previously submitted PTO-1449 was being resubmitted, however no copy was received or is needed.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Arimoto et al. 5,586,022 is the closest art of record.

The prior art however fails to teach or suggest the claimed apparatus set forth in claims 1 and 2, the combination comprising a difficult operation extracting unit which refers to the standard time for disassembling operation stored in the standard operation time memory, and the time for disassembling operation of each component stored in the operation time memory, and extracts disassembling operation which is difficult.

In regards to the method set forth in the claim 3 and the computer readable media of claim 4, the prior art fails to teach or suggest the claimed method of claim 3 comprising a difficult operation extracting step for referring to standard time for disassembling operation of each component stored beforehand, and the time for disassembling operation of the each component, and extracting disassembling operation which is difficult. Similar comments apply to media of claim 4.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
